

The pulse of contemporary circus beats in the heart of Berlin at the Chamäleon.

Over the years, Chamäleon Berlin has established itself as an exciting home for contemporary circus and stands for modern, innovative circus theatre beyond the mainstream. It showcases new perspectives on an exciting, vibrant art form and features circus productions that test boundaries, flout conventions and create unique, moving stage experiences.

The historic art nouveau ballroom in the Hackesche Höfe makes the Chamäleon one of Berlin's most beautiful theatres. Small tables and a convivial atmosphere ensure a relaxed atmosphere, while the charming service team delivers snacks, food and drinks to your table. The Chamäleon is a warm, welcoming place where hospitality is a priority.
