What else can we offer to ensure your complete comfort?

Please feel free to ask our service staff if you would like to use our accessible restroom.

If you would like to use our elevator to leave the theater, please ask our service staff.

We are happy to provide you with a menu in Braille upon request (only available in German).

For better visibility or to increase seating comfort, we are happy to provide you with a cushion or a booster seat.

If required, we are happy to provide you with a magnifying glass, which is also equipped with a light source.

You can find the next performances with audio description in German at <https://chamaeleonberlin.com/en/supporting-programme/>

Information on supporting programs in German Sign Language and Audio Description in German can be found here

Thanks to our collaboration with the Berlin Association for the Hard of Hearing, we regularly offer shows where our guests with hearing aids can borrow portable hearing loops.

The next performances with German Sign Language interpretation and hearing loops can be found at <https://chamaeleonberlin.com/en/supporting-programme/>

Please note that stroboscopic lighting effects will be used during some shows, which may pose an increased health risk for people at risk of epilepsy.

During some performances, high noise levels may occur. We will be happy to provide you with free ear protection.

Information on potential visual, auditory, or content-related triggers can be found in the description of the respective show on the website.

If necessary, you have the option of retreating to the quiet foyer at any time during the performance. You can also return to the auditorium at any time, with the exception of brief, very quiet moments during the performance.

We are here for you – please feel free to ask!
